FOUR MOUNTAIN LIONS

Captured Alive by Two Plucky Hunters of the Black Hills.

From the Black Hills Journal.

Through the kindness and courtesy of George E. Townbridge of Spring Valley we are enabled to give our readers the particulars of the capture of four mountain lions by two brothers named James and Richard King. The capture was effected on the divide between Spring Valley and Box Elder, in which vicinity the boys had noticed "signs" for some time past. Traps were set in a place frequented by the animals, and the brothers caught two on the first night. The lions made a wicked fight, but were finally captured, tied strongly with ropes, and packed on a burro, by which means they were taken alive to King's ranch in Spring Valley. Confident from the numerous tracks in the vicinity, that they had not secured the whole family, the brothers again set their traps, and on repairing to the spot alone on the following night, Richard found the old dam securely caught. He had with him a small burro, but no one to assist him in binding the lioness, and a man with less nerve would undoubtedly have killed her in the trap. Our hunter, however, had determined to take her alive, and set to work with a will to accomplish the task.

Having plenty of rope with him, he attempted to tie her in such a manner that she could do him no injury, but the wonderful strength and agility of the creature and the ease with which she cut the rope whenever she could reach it with her teeth, for a long time baffled his efforts. A tussle such as few men would voluntarily engage in took place there after night with no other human being within a distance of miles. Perseverance, agility, strength, and above all, wonderful nerve, won the contest, and King finally had the satisfaction of seeing his feline antagonist lying at his feet securely bound. He then sat down and rested from his exertions, and after a short time loaded his prize upon the burro, and arrived at the ranch none the worse for the wear.

A fourth was taken by the two brothers together, near the same place, on the evening following, and it is believed but one of the family remains as large in the neighborhood. All showed wicked fight, but all were brought in alive. The largest weighs 110 pounds. They are now all confined together, and keep up a continual growling, hissing and snarling whenever a human being approaches them. They are remarkably strong and active, the muscles standing out on their legs like knotted cords.

Which Shall It Be.

The School Trustees of District No. 10 have only sufficient money to run the schools until March 1. The reasons are, 1st. They have been forced to employ three more teachers than ever before. 2nd. It takes more fuel to heat the new school house. 3d. The Janitor's fees are larger. They want to know whether they shall levy a tax or close the schools. An election will be held on February 22d to vote on the proposition.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified voters of Reno School District No. 10 that there will be an election held, Wednesday February 22, 1881, at the old school house, between the hours of 12 M. and 4 P. M. Said election is called to submit to the qualified voters of said District the question whether a tax shall be raised for the purpose of continuing the schools of said District for the term of four months longer, there being no more money in the fund belonging to said District than will run the schools during the month of February. The amount proposed to be raised is $3,000, including the expenses of an election, etc.

By order of the Board of Trustees of said Dist. No. 10. J. L. McFARLIN. B. D. BOWEN.

HOW TIMES CAN BE IMPROVED ON THE COMSTOCK.

The Enterprise yesterday had a convincing article in reply to the question: "Is there ore in the mines that can be taken out with wages at $8 per day that must be let alone with wages at $4?" The Enterprise answers the question in the affirmative, and advocates a system of graded wages for miners, supporting its position with such facts and arguments as the following:

"It is not in the old bonanza mines alone that low grade ores are to be found that would pay for working were men now idle, and hopelessly so, allowed to go into them and earn the wherewithal to feed and clothe themselves and families. In every mine in which there has ever been found a bonanza that paid to work with men at $4 per day, there are now bodies of ore left behind that would pay to work with men at $8 per day."

"Would the mines be developed more quickly and the chance of finding ore be increased by lowering the wages?"

In answer to this we will say that in accordance with the plan proposed by those who have considered all sides of the subject, that part of the work on the lode would go on just the same as at present. About the same number of men would be employed in shafts and at prospecting in the deep levels as now, and the chances of finding ore at great depths would be the same as now. There would, however, of course be a chance of men working in low-grade ore bodies on the old upper levels striking into deposits of rich ore occasionally, and some of these might be of a good deal of importance. Large or small, all would help to bring up to a workable average a considerable amount of inferior ore.

As we cannot always have bonanzas to work, it is about time for something to be done toward working the low grade ores left behind. Hundreds of men are now idle who would be glad to work in the old upper levels for $8, or even less than $8, per day. That they are not allowed to do so is not only a wrong and a hardship to them, but also a wrong and a hardship to all those of whom these men and their families would purchase supplies.

Therefore we do insist that in view of the dull times, general stagnation of all kinds of business and many hundreds of idle miners on the Comstock, it is about time for the leading mine managers and the head men of the Miners' Union to get together and come to an understanding, by means of which employment may be given those who are now asking for it, whose wives beg for it almost on their knees, and whose children cry for bread because work is not to be obtained.

It is not in contemplation to ask a reduction of the wages of men who are working in the deepest levels, in shafts and in other hot and dangerous places. Plenty of men are now getting more than the $4 per day demanded by the Miners' Union. At least seventy men now in the employ of the bonanza firms are getting $4.75 per day, and at all the big shafts and works on the lode are a proportionate number of men who are receiving the same pay."

THE "JOURNAL'S" LIBEL ON RENO.

The libel on Reno which the Journal published yesterday morning, in the shape of a grossly incorrect account of the late raid on Chinatown, is doing as much to injure the reputation of this town as the limited circulation of the Journal allows. But its untruthful story, caught up by neighboring papers, is likely to be spread over the whole coast, to the great injury of the standing of this community. Here is a paragraph from the Carson Tribune, evidently based upon the Journal's article above referred to:

"A party of masked men, described by the Journal as men of reputed respectability, and some of them men of family, made a raid on the Chinatown of Reno last Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock, ostensibly for the purpose of breaking up the opium dens. They smashed in the doors of stores and houses and committed other acts of vandalism, but finally retreated under a volley from the pistols of a band of Chinamen, who had rallied to the defense of their property, from which unfortunately, none of the raiders were injured. Reno is gaining for itself the reputation of the most lawless town in the State, mob law being a common procedure there."

In the face of the facts furnished by the GAZETTE, the Journal stubbornly refuses to retract its libel on the citizens engaged in the affair, and upon the fair name of Reno. The charge that "the doors of houses and stores in Chinatown were smashed in" lacks nothing, perhaps, but the intention to deceive to entitle it to be called a lie.

It is absolutely untrue, as inquiry of the Chinese themselves has established. The Journal has evidently been "stuffed" with a trumped-up story by some designing liar, and having once committed itself to the monstrous yarn, now has the hardihood to persist in asserting its correctness. Our system but erring morning contemporary, though at present smarting too much from disgrace and discomfiture to retract and make a graceful apology, will yet, we trust, be enabled to see the only true way out of the difficulty. To retreat is hard, but it is better than sticking to an unfounded libel. Repeat, esteemed contemporary, and retract.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Jay Gould tells a World reporter that the new consolidated telegraph company "now has under contract through the new cable company organized at Albany two cables between this country and England, which are to be laid early in the coming summer. Cables will also be laid from Cuba, where they will connect with our present system, to the other West India islands and to Brazil and other parts of South America, as well as from San Francisco to China, Japan, Oceania, and Australia, with a northern line by way of Puget's sound to Alaska and Northern Asia, connected in Kamtchatka with the Russian system; so that at no distant date St. Petersburg will be in communication with New York by way of Asia as well as Europe, and England will rescue her Australian colonies through New York and with our American lines more cheaply and expeditiously than over English wires through the Red Sea and by way of India." In short he contemplates a general telegraph and cable system around the world.

A New York telegram contains the following interesting reminiscence of Fernando Wood: "On the discovery of gold in California in '48, Wood sent out the bark Jno. W. Carter, with a cargo of merchandise for sale to the miners, and out of this transaction a trial in the Courts followed. The California venture was very successful and Wood felt himself rich enough after it to retire from business, which he did, investing a large part of his capital in real estate which has rapidly increased in value since."

Miss Ada Heather-Bigg, a clever English girl, has just carried off the Joseph Hume Scholarship in Political Economy at University College, de-

JOTTINGS.

A few showers of hail fell last night.

Justice Young is reported better to-day.

A gentleman recently returned from a trip to Walker River country tells the Enterprise he is quite confident that, by boring, large flowing wells of excellent fresh water may be obtained everywhere in the valleys. Even in ordinary wells pure and excellent water is obtained. As all the valleys are in the form of basins, surrounded by high ranges of mountains, he does not doubt that artesian wells would everywhere prove successful. In many places are large areas of sagebrush lands that may be made very productive by irrigation, as the soil is excellent. It is thought it would not be necessary to bore to a greater depth than from 200 to 300 feet. It is to be hoped that the Carson and Colorado Railroad Company will set the example by boring a well at some point along the line of their road. Their success would encourage other, and in a few years blooming gardens and fields would line the road—literally the desert would be made to rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It is thought that it would be necessary to pass through rock to make these wells. It is supposed that the basins are filled with strata of clay, sand and gravel, something like several saucers piled up with a layer of sand and water between each, the strata of clay representing the saucers. Thus by boring anywhere within the rim of these saucers—that is within the circle of surrounding mountain ranges—flowing wells would be obtained. These wells are now bored very rapidly and very cheaply by the people of California, who have had great experience in the business, and who are, therefore, the men to engage for the experiment.

A gold bracelet was found on Fourth street, near Whitehead's corner, this morning. The owner can recover it at this office.

It is expected that considerable house-building will be done in Reno when spring opens. Houses to let are hard to find now.

There are about 45 men now at work on the N. & O. road, under Knox's contract. The force will be largely increased next week, after the arrival of Col. Moore.

Sixty head of cattle were driven in from Surprise to-day for shipment to San Francisco to-morrow. They were bought by Hope for Moffat Bros.

There will be a called communication of Read Lodge, No. 18, F. & A. M., to-morrow evening, at which there will be work in the second degree.

The overland train brought no mail from the East last night, failing to make connection at Ogden. The train which will arrive this evening also failed to connect at Ogden. Trains on the U. P. are said to be blocked by snow at Council Bluffs.

A Promising New Mining District—The Expected Spring Boom.

The Plumas National's Susanville correspondent says: "I just saw a man here who has lately arrived from the new mines in the Miller district, one hundred miles east of here, and seventy miles from Wadsworth. He reports that new discoveries have recently been made which promise to be very rich—in fact, it is thought that they have discovered the Comstock lode. Specimens exhibited by him certainly look like the same rock, with which I am familiar, having worked in the Comstock mines. There is little doubt but what there will be a big rush in the spring. Tea or fifteen men are stepping there permanently, with many coming and going all the time. No feed for horses nearer than twenty-five miles, and the houses are burrows dug in the hill-side and covered with canvas. Lumber will have to be transported from Wadsworth. There is plenty of juniper, but no other timber. A whisky mill is in full blast, so there is no danger from snake bites or scorpion stings."

The Bowers Mansion.

Says the Virginia Chronicle: "It cost Sandy Bowers $240,000 to erect the building now known as the 'Bowers Mansion,' and the books, furniture, pictures, etc., which he put into it cost $45,000. The walls of the building are of the hardest granite, hewn, in fact, out of huge granite boulders. J. Neely Johnson, once Governor of California, bossed the job. The price of one of the bed-room sets that used to be in that house would make Sandy's widow quite comfortable now. Such is life."

Mining Stocks.

Little life was exhibited in the Board this morning. Ophir sold at 4 1/2, Mexican 4.90, Gould & Curry 3.20, Best & Belcher 7 1/2, Savage 2.10, Hale & Norcross 4, Jacket 2.95, Belcher 1, Sierra Nevada 5 1/2, Utah 7 1/2, Alta 1.90.

Social.

The regular socials and parlor entertainment of the Methodist Church will be held this evening at the residence of Judge Webster. All will be made welcome.

Census Reports on the Negroes and Chinese.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.

The Herald, in reviewing the late census statistics, finds that while the black population of the fifteen Southern States during the decade preceding 1870 was only 5 1/2 per cent, the increase during the last ten years was more than 33 per cent. Regarding the increase of Chinese in different States, the Herald says: "In Nevada they have increased since 1870 from 3,152 to 5,420; in Colorado from 7 to 610, of whom about one-third are in Denver; in Washington Territory from 234 to 3,182; in Wyoming from 143 to 914, and in Dakota from none to 238.

In Idaho and Montana there has been marked falling away of Chinese, the decrease being from 4,274 to 3,278 in the former Territory and 1,949 to 1,737 in the latter. New York city, which had just a round dozen in 1870, now numbers 747, while Philadelphia, which started ten years ago with precisely the same number as New York, can only show 80. Kings county enumerates 118, which may be taken as the approximate number of Chinese laundries in Brooklyn. Even New Jersey has 176 Mongolians within its borders, while Massachusetts has 237, and Connecticut 124. It is probable that New Orleans has attracted 473 to Louisiana, but St. Louis has drawn less than 100 to Missouri.

Assessment List.

Senator Jones on Nevada.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.

The Tribune interviewed Senator Jones yesterday. He said: Nevada is in a prosperous condition. There is an impression in the East that our State government is so expensive that we think of abandoning it, and becoming a Territory again. This is not the case. Our people do not know that they have a government, that is, they have not felt it burdensome at all. Our system of taxation is such that the poor people do not feel the taxes; we are taxed according to our incomes; a mine is taxed for what it produces, so that it pays taxes as part of its expenses, and comparatively speaking, the burden is not felt. In the East the taxes cannot be levied in that way because there are too many rich men; in Nevada there are only a few rich men, and they cannot do much. Consequently when a lode gives out, like the Comstock, the revenue of the government falls off. Now, what, under such circumstances, does the Legislature do? It goes to work and cuts down salaries and expenses right and left to make liabilities less than receipts. We have no debt and our miners are doing well, there being no State or Territory in the Union where mining is carried on so scientifically as it is in Nevada. The idea that we desire to be annexed to California or return to a territorial government is absurd.

The Humboldt Falling.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says: "The Humboldt River has been higher the past week than known for the last five years. It is now falling slowly. The house of A. A. Ward was surrounded, only wanting about four inches to reach the floor, and the premises of J. H. Crum were rather damp, the water running around his dwelling and through the stable.

Cattle Shipments.

L. W. Lee shipped three carloads of cattle to Dutch Flat this morning. They were purchased by Frank Ahner from the meat shipping Co. More cattle are to be shipped to California in a day or two.

OH, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving $6 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers do not go without it. For lame back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's porous plaster. Sold by Oshburn & Shoemaker, drugists, Reno, Nevada.

Fees of Doctors.

The fees of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in paying. The doctor's fee for visiting a patient is $10 a day, and in cases of confinement $15 a day. For a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance is paid. And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.

A Hawk and a Rattlesnake.

From the Arizona Globe-Chronicle.

My musing on the ages of change that it must have taken to mould the scene to its present aspect were broken by a large rattlesnake gliding out on a bare rock within fifty feet of where I was sitting. He seemed to search around like a dog for a place to suit his snakeship, and then stretched himself out to enjoy the warmth. I was thinking if it was worth while to throw a stone at the monster, when a big shadow swept down and nearly caught him napping, but not quite; the snake sprung his rattle and coiled himself ready to strike, while the hawk hovered round, making a dash, now on the right and now on the left. It was quite an interesting skirmish, but at last the snake made a spring and apparently failed to strike, and before he could recoil himself, the hawk seized him with both talons close behind the head. In fact, he had him on the neck, and swept into the air, while the snake struggled and twisted, away up in the blue, in wide circling sweeps, until the struggling reptile hung limp and lifeless, when the hawk came down to earth again and alighted on a neighboring tree, made his meal on the snake.

Death of a Woman Hater.

From the Toronto Globe.

Robert Taylor, an old inhabitant of London township, was found dead in his bed at his home in the eighth concession a few nights ago. He was aged 82 years and a bachelor recluse. His only companions through life were dogs and cats. No woman was ever allowed to enter his door. He had amassed a fortune by stock raising, and always kept his money hidden in different parts of the house. Once a party of robbers entered and gagged him, and then took from him a large sum of money. He was ever after suspicious of strangers, and denied them admission. He leaves a large amount in the banks of this city, and one of the finest farms in London township.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of Nevada, and for the County of Washoe, the State of Nevada sends to Mary Jane Hall, Greetings: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by S. C. Hall, as plaintiff, in the name of the State of Nevada, and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service), is served in the county, or twenty days thereafter, if you have not come to the trial date. Judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to obtain a judgment against you for damages for services performed and in favor of the plaintiff. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Hooksett in the State of New Hampshire, A. D. 1832, and lived and established a home there, and that she has been a true and faithful husband. That on the 26th day of August, A. D. 1874, at Reno, Nevada, defendant left plaintiff's bed and board and returned to live with plaintiff, and remained with plaintiff until the marriage of plaintiff with another man, and that he has been a true and faithful husband. That on the 26th day of August, A. D. 1874, at Reno, Nevada, defendant left plaintiff's bed and board and returned to live with plaintiff, and remained with plaintiff until the marriage of plaintiff with another man, and that he has been a true and faithful husband.
